

Key Findings - By Region

View findings by region:

Northwest USA

Northwest USA

Companies in the northwest USA had the most to celebrate in terms of revenue and profit last year, being the region with the highest percentage of companies reporting increases in both of those key performance measures. Putting in the hours may have something to do with that performance. The northwest USA has the highest percentage of superworkers — those putting in more than 70 hours a week.

The northwest USA has the highest percentage of superworkers

20%
Work more than
70 hours a week